September 12th, 1925.

The Rev. A. J. F. Monro,
West Linton,
Peebles-Shire, Scotland.

My dear Mr. Monro:

Thank you very much for your long and cordial letter. I read it when I returned to my home the other day. We had altogether a very delightful trip and reached home in safety. Certainly our visit to West Linton and your delightful cordiality and hospitality was one of the brightest spots of the whole trip. It would be a great pleasure to see you in this country, and I hope some good fortune may bring you this way.

Mrs. Robinson joins me in sending to you our very best wishes. Please remember us most kindly to the Misses Kinloch, and also to your sister if she is still there with you.

Very sincerely yours,